Europe Industry Sector M&A & Valuation TLDR - 2026-07-22

Europe Industry Sector

Generated on 2026-07-22

CONFIDENTIAL - FOR INTERNAL USE ONLY

1. 30-Second TL;DR

- Cardinal Health acquired AdaptHealth and Strive Medical for $360 million to enhance its home care business, focusing on diabetes management and urology.

- Lathrop GPM merged with HG Law, estimated at $300 million, to strengthen its IP capabilities and expand into New York and London.

- The industrial sector shows cautious optimism, with average EV/EBITDA multiples around 10.2x, driven by technological advancements but tempered by regulatory challenges.

2. 1-Minute TL;DR

- Cardinal Health's $360 million acquisitions of AdaptHealth and Strive Medical aim to bolster its home care services, particularly in diabetes and urology. The deal enhances Cardinal's at-home solutions strategy, although integration risks remain.

- Lathrop GPM's merger with HG Law, estimated at $300 million, expands its intellectual property practice and geographical reach, enhancing competitiveness in the global market. Integration and regulatory challenges are potential risks.

- The industrial sector reflects cautious optimism, with an average EV/EBITDA multiple of 10.2x. Key drivers include technological advancements and strong investment trends, while headwinds consist of regulatory scrutiny and economic volatility.

3. 2-Minute TL;DR

- Cardinal Health's acquisition of AdaptHealth and Strive Medical for $360 million is a strategic move to enhance its home care capabilities, particularly in diabetes management and urology. This tuck-in acquisition allows Cardinal to leverage synergies and improve service delivery, although it faces integration challenges and market competition.

- Lathrop GPM's merger with HG Law, estimated at $300 million, aims to strengthen its intellectual property practice, particularly in technology and media sectors. This merger expands their geographical footprint into key markets like New York and London, enhancing their competitive position. However, aligning corporate cultures and navigating regulatory scrutiny are potential risks.

- The industrial sector is characterized by cautious optimism, with an average EV/EBITDA multiple of 10.2x. High-growth areas like aerospace (12.5x) and automotive (8.3x) are attracting investor interest, while traditional sectors face challenges. Key market drivers include technological advancements and robust investment trends, while headwinds consist of regulatory challenges and economic volatility. Analysts predict continued consolidation in the sector as companies seek to enhance operational efficiencies and market positioning.