1. PRIMARY MARKET ANALYSIS - APAC REGION

Week of 2026-11-01 to 2026-11-08

Executive Summary

This week in the APAC region saw a notable absence of significant M&A activity across all sectors, with no reported deals in TMT, Healthcare, Energy, Consumer, or Industry. The market sentiment was heavily influenced by ongoing volatility in technology stocks, particularly following a substantial sell-off in the U.S. market. The S&P 500 experienced its worst day since June, which reverberated through global markets, including those in Asia. Investors remain cautious as they await further economic indicators and developments from the U.S. midterm elections.

2. SECONDARY MARKET ANALYSIS - APAC REGION

Week of 2026-11-01 to 2026-11-08

Executive Summary

This week, the APAC region experienced significant market volatility, primarily driven by a sell-off in technology stocks in the U.S. The S&P 500 recorded its worst day since June, which negatively impacted investor sentiment across Asia. The Hang Seng Index and other regional indices reflected this trend, with technology stocks leading declines. The market remains cautious as investors await further economic indicators and the outcomes of the U.S. midterm elections.
